Parents and Citizens' Association

ABN 71 580 067 091

WACSSO Member

If you want to make friends, have fun and feel part of the school community all while improving your child's experience at North Morley PS, then join the P&C. If you would like the opportunity to influence and be part of the decision making process at your school then the P&C is for you. You will have the chance to share any expertise you have with others, meet other parents and teachers and get to know your principal.

The main role of the P&C Association is to:-

- Involve parents in shaping the school community
- Provide a voice for parents and students by maintaining positive relationships between the P&C and school administration
- Bring parents together to share information and views
- Organise events to build a strong sense of community
- Raise funds and provide additional resources for the benefit of students
- Support all the amazing services our school community provides such as the Uniform Shop, Garden Club, Community Recycling, Special Canteen Days, etc.

- If you plan on attending our AGM via ZOOM on Wed 02 March – please complete the membership form beforehand and hand into the office with your 50c to ensure you have voting rights.
- If you can't make meetings but would like to receive the agendas and minutes from meetings – please join! Just hand in your membership form with your 50c to the office. * You may only vote if you attend meetings in person or via videoconferencing.
- Those attending the AGM in person can bring along their completed membership form with 50c on the night.

CASH ONLY – DO NOT DO ONLINE TRANSFERS!
